ACD GUATEMALA

CORE VALUES

ACD is poised to cultivate a donor community full of lifelong supporters. We are aware achieving this goal requires lots of long-term strategic moves and outreach from our team. For this reason we work diligently to obtain results in a short time, causing development of the communities and loyalty of our partners. Our objectives are to positively impact the communities and invite new donors, retain them and upgrade them.

"Guided by our core values, ACD commits to using any gift that is offered for the service and benefit of others."

Loving one another is a Great Commission!

The Kingdom of God is for everyone and there are important roles that each child of God can fill for others. Our Ministry is a great place to connect hearts whether you want to share blessings or if you have a missionary heart. Today we call for you to actively participate in the Kingdom of God in Central America. Our programs can guide and facilitate your motivations.

We want to inspire and equip you to make meaningful contributions in different communities and be a valuable voice in your congregation so that the Kingdom reaches many who need it!

In the following sections we present 3 ways to do it:

- Powerful Givers
- Hope Builders
- Vision Partners

WANT TO HELP NOW?

Here are our two greatest needs!

$20,000

Pick-up Truck

Our pick-up is on its last legs! Pastor Jason Brock made this unit available and we have put it to good use carrying stoves, eco filters, concrete, transporting volunteers to the field, conducting our field studies, monitoring, among other activities! Buying a 4x4 unit will cost around $20,000. This is an emergency! With your support we will be able to reach this goal!

$12,000

La Posada (ACD Lodging)

For 5 years we had the ACD Inn run by Pastor Jason Brock. We have hosted hundreds of missionaries, a very organic space that promoted affordable costs to young volunteers. Now that PJ is gone, we are building an inn within the ACD facility that will host young adult missionaries.

We will preserve the memory of our beloved pastor and continue to provide low-cost opportunities to missionaries who want to share their gifts through ACD Ministries. We have already invested $5,000 in foundation and we are fundraising $12,000 more to complete the project.

This inn will have the capacity to host 8 people at the same time, it will have two bathrooms with showers. .

With this you will be contributing to missions, because it will allow young people an easier way to get involved.
